

Tuesday 13th July 2021

As inquisitive learners we will be theologians, philosophers and thinkers. We will ask important questions. We may not find the answers. We will grow our knowledge of the beliefs and traditions of religions worldwide. We will wrestle with big questions about the mysteries of life. We will wonder.

inquisitive number

factors

place value

fraction

3021

percentage

addition

subtraction

division

How else can you make it?

recap

You have found out about many people who have been inspired by their faith to make changes in the way they live. These people have gone on to inspire others.

Are there people of faith or no faith who inspire you to make changes in your life?

What is it in them that inspires?

First let's consider what you don't need to be inspiring?

Do you need a fast car?

Do you need to be rich?

Do you need the loudest voice?

What else don't you need?

What qualities are required?

determined

caring

What else?

Write a poem to compare.

An inspirational person doesn't need to be rich
Or have the loudest voice
They are not the one with the latest clothes
Or the fastest car
Or the biggest house
They don't ...
They don't.

An inspirational person is someone who cares
Takes time to listen
Is always there Is...
Can...

How might the qualities of inspirational people (religious or no faith) inspire you to change something in your life?

Will you become more determined?

Stand up for an important cause.

What would you aim to change?

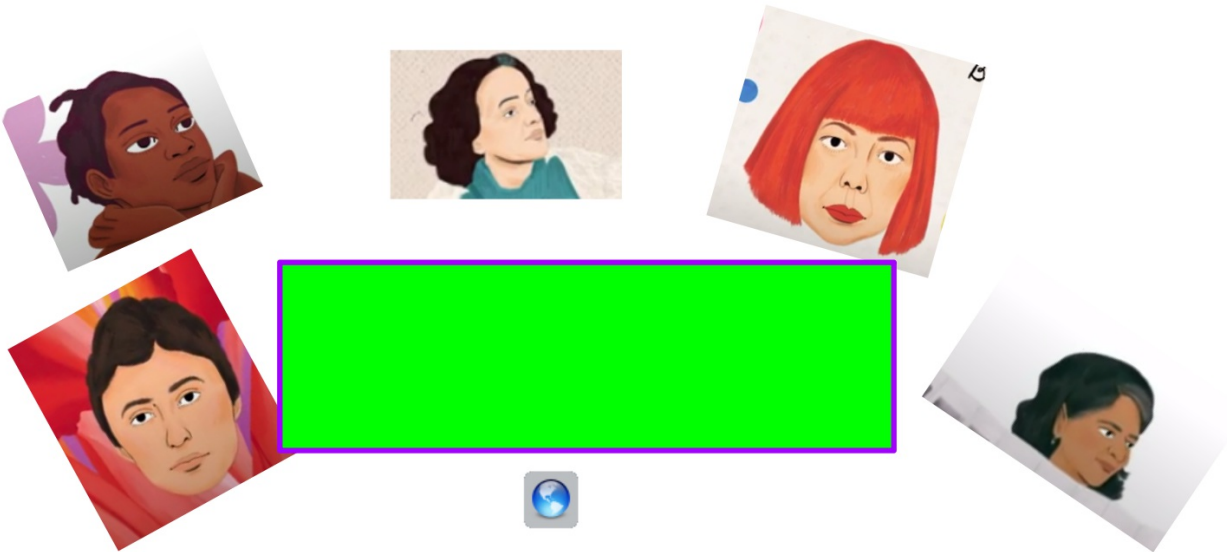

WALT take inspiration from an artist to create our own sculpture.

recap

We have been looking at how people can be inspirational in the way we lead our lives. Artists are also considered inspirational.

What do you think?

Do you agree they are inspiring ?

What is your first reaction to their their ideas?

'Do it because you're thinking it and feeling it and it's got to be expressed. So just get on with it'
- Sonia Boyce

'I rarely draw what I see.
I draw what I feel in my body'
- Barbara Hepworth

'My love for the world has always been the driving force and energy behind all that I do'
- Yayoi Kusama

'Men put me down as "the best woman painter". I think I'm one of the best painters'
- Georgia O'Keeffe

You can see her work
in major galleries but she has also put her books in shop windows and
given them to strangers in the street.

We will take our inspiration from Yayoi.

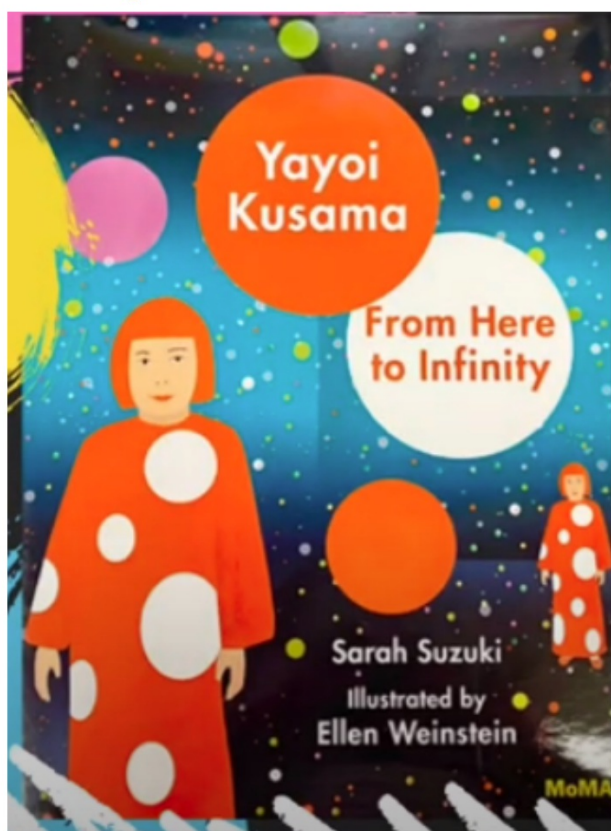

What do you want to find out?

WHO IS YAYOI KUSAMA?

Don't adjust your screens or rub your eyes...the dots you are about to experience are art!
Welcome to the weird and wonderful world of Yayoi Kusama

Her story has been told in a book for children.

Has anything surprised you in the story?

- Born in Japan in 1929.
- Her mum refused to let her do any artwork and destroyed many of Yayoi's drawings.
- Yayoi moved to France and then New York in her twenties.
- She is sometimes called The Princess of Polka Dots.
- Yayoi creates lots of different types of artwork – paintings, sculptures, performances and installations. Everything includes dots!
- She had a hallucination she had as a child, when she was in a field of flowers and they all turned into talking dots.

WALT take inspiration from an artist to create our own sculpture.

How does Yayoi's work make you feel?

Give me 5 words
to describe this piece.

Yayoi Kusama – Pumpkin, 1994, Benesse Art Site, Naoshima, Japan, photo: CC BY-NC-ND 2.0 by gsz

Give me 5 words
to describe this piece.

What does it
make you think of?

I wonder...

Give me 5 words to describe the piece.

Infinity Mirror Room: My Heart Is Dancing Into The Universe

I wonder...

What was your first reaction?

What does it make you think of? Describe the lines and colours.

Do your ideas change the longer you look?

Stick three of the pictures in your book.

Infinity Mirror Room: My Heart Is Dancing Into The Universe

Your turn to experiment with dots.

Cover your paper
with dots of all sizes!

WALT take inspiration from an artist to create our own sculpture.

What will you sculpt?

fruit

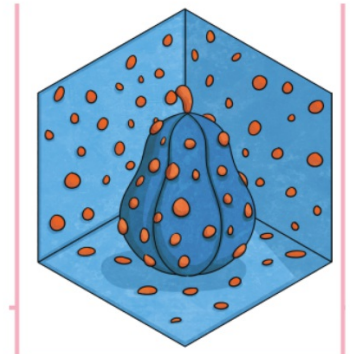

flowers

abstract shapes

Will you reflect in a mirror?

WALT take inspiration from an artist to create our own sculpture.

Experiment with your ideas.

Do some 2d sketches.

What colours will you choose?

My design

Title

Colours

Materials