

Grammar and Punctuation Quiz 4

1. Tick two boxes to show where dashes should be inserted into the sentence below.

The woman a famous scientist from Wales visited our school to show us some of her work.
        
1 mark

2. Tick to show whether the underlined word is a coordinating or a subordinating conjunction.

Sentence	Coordinating conjunction	Subordinating conjunction
Do you want an apple or a pear?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
He slipped because it is icy.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
I have a red pen but not a blue one.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

1 mark

3. Circle both verbs in the sentence below.

We heard the bell ring and sped across the field to our classrooms.

1 mark

4. Correctly complete the sentence below by inserting a relative pronoun.

It was very windy and the front door, _____ was made of solid wood, slammed shut loudly.

1 mark

5. Complete the sentence with an appropriate adverb.

He waited in the line _____.

1 mark

6. Look at the words below. What does the root bene mean?

benefit   benefactor   beneficial

Tick one

bendy good fit problem

1 mark

7. Rewrite the sentence in the simple past tense. Punctuate your sentence correctly.

The pupils take a pencil.

_____

1 mark

8. Complete the table below with the expanded or contracted form. One has been done for you.

Expanded form	Contracted form
she will	she'll he has they are wouldn't

1 mark