

Pronouns

1. Colour the pronouns and circle the nouns.

me

we

mum

I

shell

she

you

Sam

he

Ruby

Tilly

VF
HW/Ext

2. Match the appropriate pronoun to replace the underlined nouns in the sentences below.

a. Late last night, Sara heard a strange noise downstairs and froze in bed.

us

b. All the class met the new teacher and she helped the children to make chocolate-chip cookies.

him

c. Ciaron loves being a goalkeeper. After football training, the coach asked Ciaron to go in the nets for the game.

she

VF
HW/Ext

3. Simon has included a pronoun in the sentence below to avoid repetition.

Maisie climbed the huge mountain so me could see the Ogre's secret lair.

Circle the pronoun Simon has used incorrectly. Which pronoun should he have used?

AR
HW/Ext

Pronouns

4. Colour the pronouns and circle the nouns.

Dad

Jerome

herself

they

us

them

flies

she

him

brother

everybody

VF
HW/Ext

5. Match the appropriate pronoun to replace the underlined nouns in the sentences below.

a. After dark, James and his friends went for a stroll. James and his friends stumbled upon an old, abandoned mine.

herself

b. Mae finished her cereal and poured Mae a cup of fresh, orange juice.

everyone

c. The children laughed when Sam told his joke about the elephant and the kangaroo.

they

VF
HW/Ext

6. Abdullah has included pronouns in the paragraph below to avoid repetition.

Carly has a large family that live all over the world. She lives in Brazil with her mum, dad and baby sister. They are called Alice, Fred and Ellie. Carly's mum is a teacher. Her works at the local school in the reception class, helping the children learn to read and write.

Circle the pronouns Abdullah has used incorrectly. Which pronouns should he have used?

AR
HW/Ext

Pronouns

7. Colour the pronouns and circle the nouns.

terrific

friend

anyone

myself

uncle

everyone

delightful

itself

sister

yours

ourselves

VF
HW/Ext

8. Match the appropriate pronoun to replace the underlined nouns in the sentences below.

a. The farmer said that we could camp on his land but we would have to pitch the tent as a family.

anyone

b. The waiter finished pouring the drinks and asked if the group would like anything else.

they

c. The ranger brought different snakes into school, for the children to handle. The snakes felt dry to touch.

ourselves

VF
HW/Ext

9. Sophia has included pronouns in the paragraph below to avoid repetition.

Samuel is completing a survey with his best friend Connor. They are asking every teacher, from a choice of four, what their favourite TV series is. Anyone has to provide an answer so ourselves have enough data to complete their graphs and present the findings at the end of the day.

Circle the pronouns Sophia has used incorrectly. Which pronouns should she have used?

AR
HW/Ext

Homework/Extension

Pronouns

Developing

1. me, we, I, she, you and he – coloured; mum, shell, Sam, Ruby and Tilly circled.
2. a – she; b – us; c – him.
3. me should be circled. The correct pronoun to use would be she. Maisie climbed the huge mountain so she could see the Ogre's secret lair.

Expected

4. herself, they, us, them, she, him and everybody – coloured; Dad, Jerome, flies and brother – circled.
5. a – they; b – herself; c – everyone.
6. Them and her circled. The correct pronouns to use would be they and she. Carly has a large family that live all over the world. She lives in Brazil with her mum, dad and baby sister. They are called Alice, Fred and Ellie. Carly's mum is a teacher. She works at the local school in the reception class, helping the children learn to read and write.

Greater Depth

7. anyone, myself, everyone, itself, yours and ourselves – coloured; friend, uncle and sister – circled.
8. a – ourselves; b – anyone; c – they
9. Them, anyone and ourselves circled. The correct pronouns to use would be they, everyone and they again. Sophia could also have left a noun such as The children in the sentence. Samuel is completing a survey with his best friend Connor. They are asking every teacher, from a choice of four, what their favourite TV series is. Everyone has to provide an answer so the children/they have enough data to complete their graphs and present the findings at the end of the day.